"Every meeting with Raluca is an encounter with a sublime mind. Through the questions she asks, through the answers she contemplates, she elevates everything into a long-lasting transformative journey. She is a "discoverer of the marvels of everyday life", a deep analytical mind with an infinite passion for projects that shape our world meaningfully".

"Meeting Raluca is a providential encounter. She is gentle, delicate, and at the same time determined, tenacious, complex and complete. DepreHUB had been held by her from the beginning and over time her critical eye brought laser focus on what this organisation needs. Gently but firmly she holds our direction, imposes the action, and gives me peace of mind that if she takes on a project, it's in good hands."
